

Alfreton Nursery School - Designated Safe Guarding Leads

Safeguarding at Alfreton Nursery School is everyone's priority. The Designated Safeguarding Leads and Safeguarding Governor take overall responsibility for Safeguarding and Child Protection, providing support to staff members to carry out their safeguarding duties and liaising closely with other services such as children's social care.

Responsibilities and annual reviews – 2018-19

Name	Main Area of Responsibility	Within any academic year, each DSL should receive up-to-date training for their area/s of responsibility, up-date any policies in consultation with the Governors and take personal responsibility for the dissemination of this training to the SMT, Governing body and all school staff as appropriate. As additional priorities emerge, the above responsibilities will incorporate changes as appropriate
